BUILDING SCANDAL MADAME CURIE HERE HAS "SHAKEN ENTIRE TRADE"

"Causes Uneasiness in All Lines," Says Head of Supply Association.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7 .- "The building scandal of New York has created considerable uneasiness in all lines of the building industry," A. E. Bradshaw, President of the National Builders' Supply Association, said to-day at the opening of its convention here.

"While this association has never violated any law, this did not keep us from being investigated. However, we got a clean bill from the Department of Justice."
